

REMEMBRANCE OF THE FALLEN

“That the generations to come might know them.”

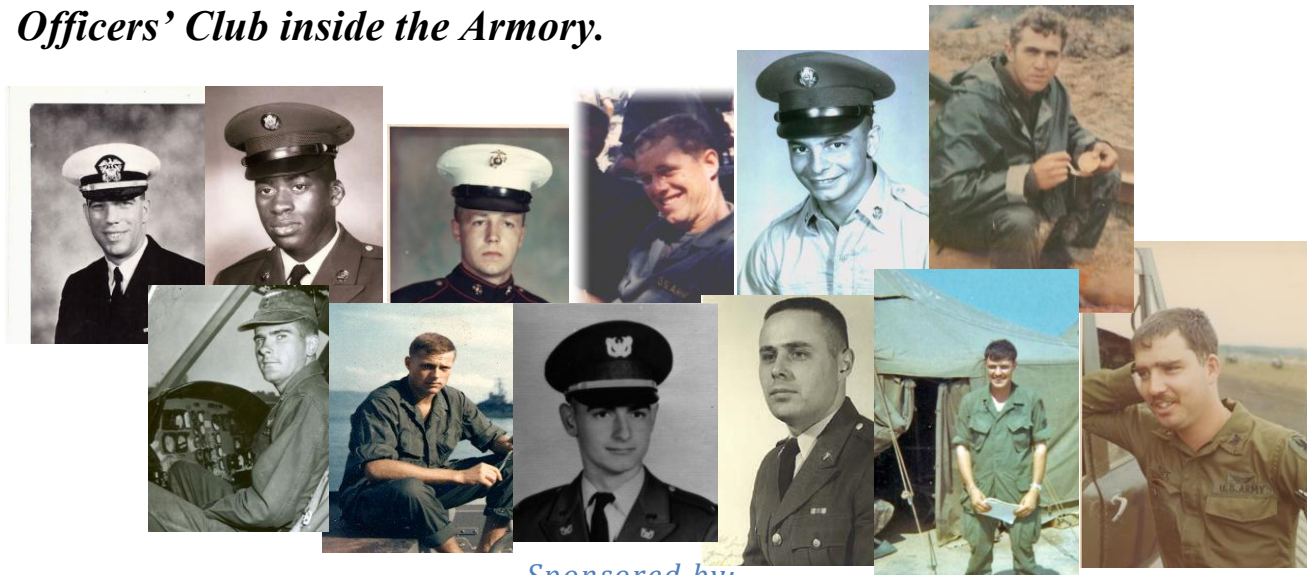

Let us honor and remember the 613 Connecticut men who were killed in action during the Vietnam War.

What: The reading of names of the 613 Connecticut men who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country

When: Saturday, March 30, 2013 – 1:00 pm
“Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day”

Where: Minuteman Park
Located in front of the Governor William A. O’Neill Armory
360 Broad Street
Hartford, CT

Following the ceremony, light refreshments will be served in the Officers’ Club inside the Armory.

Sponsored by:

Connecticut Department of Veterans’ Affairs
Veterans History Project at Central Connecticut State University
Vietnam Veterans of America – CT State Council
Association of the United States Army

